

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

Our Pledge To You Regarding Your Medical Information

Developed in compliance with the federal Privacy Rule (HIPAA)

EFFECTIVE APRIL 14, 2003

REVISED: JULY 1, 2012

Our Pledge to You

We understand that your medical information is personal. We are committed to protecting your privacy. Each time you visit a hospital, physician, or other healthcare provider, a record of your visit is made. Typically, this record contains your symptoms, examination and test results, diagnoses, treatment, a plan for future care or treatment, and billing-related information. This notice applies to all of the records of your care generated by the hospital, whether made by hospital personnel, agents of the hospital, or your personal doctor. Your personal doctor may have different policies or notices regarding the doctor's use and disclosure of our medical information created in the doctor's office or clinic.

Our Responsibilities:

We are required by law to maintain the privacy of your health information and provide you a description of our privacy practices. We will abide by the terms of this notice and notify you if we cannot agree to a requested restriction. We will accommodate reasonable requests you may have to communicate health information by alternative means or at alternative locations.

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU WILL BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION.

PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES THE PRACTICES OF LOWELL GENERAL HOSPITAL AND THAT OF:

- All departments and units of the hospital as well as all employees, staff and other hospital personnel.
- Any health care professional authorized to enter information into your hospital chart.
- Any member of a volunteer group we allow to help you while you are in the hospital.

In addition to Lowell General Hospital and its affiliated locations and medical practices, the Circle Health Corp, Inc; Circle Health Alliance; and Circle Health Medical Group follows the terms of this notice. The entities, sites and locations may share health information with each other for treatment, payment or hospital operations purposes as described in this notice.

This facility and its medical staff members have organized and are presenting you this document as a joint notice. Information will be shared as necessary to carry out treatment, payment, and health care operations. Physicians and caregivers may have access to protected health information in their offices to assist in reviewing past treatment as it may affect treatment at the time.

How Lowell General Hospital May Use or Disclose Your Health Information

For Treatment - Lowell General Hospital may use your health information to provide you with medical treatment or services. For example, your healthcare provider, such as a physician, nurse, or other person providing health services to you, obtains your health history and records the information related to your treatment in your record. This helps health care providers decide which treatment you should receive. Health care providers will also record your treatment and how you respond.

For Payment - Lowell General Hospital may use and disclose your health information to others for purposes of receiving payment for treatment and services that you receive. For example, a bill may be sent to you or third party payer, such as an insurance company or health plan. The information on the bill may contain information that identifies you, your diagnosis, and treatment or supplies used in the course of treatment.

For Health Care Operations - Lowell General Hospital may use and disclose health information about you for operational purposes. For example, your health information may be disclosed to members of the medical staff, risk or performance improvement personnel, and others to:

- Evaluate the performance of our staff;
- Assess the quality of care and outcomes in your cases and similar cases;

How Lowell General Hospital May Use or Disclose Your Health Information

- Learn how to improve our facilities and services; and
- Determine how to continually improve the quality and effectiveness of the health care we provide.

Business Associates - There are some services provided in our organization through contracts with business associates. Examples include physician services in the emergency department and radiology, and a copy service we use when making copies of your health record. When these services are contracted, we may disclose your health information to our business associate so that they can perform the job we have asked them to do and bill you or your third-party payer for services rendered. To protect your health information, however, we require the business associate to appropriately safeguard your information. We also require any subcontractors that work for this business associate to also take steps to safeguard your information.

Directory - We may include certain limited information about you in the hospital directory while you are a patient at the hospital. The information may include your name, location in the hospital, your general condition (e.g., fair, stable, etc.) and your religious affiliation. This information may be provided to members of the clergy and, except for religious affiliation, to other people who ask for you by name. You can choose not to be listed in this directory by notifying a Lowell General Hospital representative, doctor, or nurse verbally or in writing. In the event of an emergency or your incapacity, we will honor your previous preferences and what we determine to be in your best interest. You can change our decision once the emergency is over or you are no longer incapacitated.

How Lowell General Hospital May Use or Disclose Your Health Information

Individuals Involved in Your Care or Payment for Your Care

- We may release medical information about you to a friend or family member who is involved in your medical care or who helps pay for your care. In addition, we may disclose medical information about you to an entity assisting in a disaster relief effort so that your family can be notified about your condition, status and location.

Appointments - Lowell General Hospital may use your information to provide appointment reminders, other kinds of treatment or other health-related benefits and services that may be of interest to you.

Fundraising - We may contact you in an effort to raise money for the hospital and its operations. We only use limited information such as your name, address, and phone number. The money raised is used to support the healthcare services and educational programs we provide to the community. If you do not want the hospital to contact you for fundraising efforts, you must notify the Lowell General Hospital Development Office in writing at 295 Varnum Avenue, Lowell, MA 01854. If you choose not to be contacted, this will not change your ability to get medical care at Lowell General Hospital.

How Lowell General Hospital May Use or Disclose Your Health Information

Required by Law – Lowell General Hospital may use and disclose information about you as required by law. For example, Lowell General Hospital may disclose information for the following purposes:

- For legal proceedings - as determined by legal authority.
- To report information related to victims of abuse, neglect, or domestic violence; and
- To assist law enforcement officials in their law enforcement duties.

Public Health – Your health information may be used or disclosed for public health activities or other legal authorities to prevent or control disease, injury, or disability, or for other health review activities.

Deaths – Health information may be disclosed to funeral directors or coroners to enable them to carry out their lawful duties.

How Lowell General Hospital May Use or Disclose Your Health Information

Organ/Tissue Donation – If you are an organ donor, we may release medical information as is necessary to organizations that handle organ procurement or organ, eye, or tissue transplantation or to an organ donation bank, to facilitate organ or tissue donation and transplantation.

Research - Lowell General Hospital may use your health information for research purposes if the research program has been reviewed and approved to ensure your privacy.

Organized Health Care Arrangement - This facility and its medical staff members have organized and are presenting you this document as a joint notice. Information will be shared as necessary to carry out treatment, payment and health care operations. Physicians and caregivers may have access to protected health information in their offices to assist in reviewing past treatment as it may affect treatment at the time.

Health and Safety – Your health information may be disclosed to avoid a serious threat to the health or safety of you or any other person as determined by law.

Government Functions – Specialized government functions may need use of your health information, for protection of public officials or reporting to various branches of the armed services

How Lowell General Hospital May Use or Disclose Your Health Information

Workers Compensation – Your health information may be used to comply with laws and regulations related to Workers Compensation.

Prohibited Use— Lowell General Hospital is not allowed to receive any money for the use of your medical information or sell your information to another entity. If there should be a circumstance where this is needed, we have to get your written permission.

YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION RIGHTS

Although your health record is the physical property of the healthcare practitioner or facility that compiled it, you have the right to:

Inspect and Copy: You have the right to inspect and copy medical information that may be used to make decisions about your care. Usually, this includes medical and billing records, but does not include psychotherapy notes. When it is in your best interest or required by law, we may deny your request to inspect and copy in very limited circumstances. If you are denied access to medical information, you may request that the denial be reviewed. Another licensed health care professional chosen by the hospital will review your request and the denial. The person conducting the review will not be the person who denied your request. We will comply with the outcome of the review.

YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION RIGHTS

To inspect and copy medical information that may be used to make decisions about you, you must submit your request, in writing, to the Director of the Health Information Management Department (Medical Records). If you request a copy of the information, we may charge a fee for the costs of copying, mailing, or other expenses associated with your request.

Most of your hospital medical record is now maintained in our electronic medical record system. You have the right to ask us to provide to you a copy of your electronic medical record in an electronic format on a disk at no additional charge.

You can also ask for a copy of your discharge instructions from your inpatient admission to be provided to you in electronic format on disk at no charge to you at the time you are discharged from the hospital.

YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION RIGHTS

Amend: If you feel that medical information we have about you is incorrect or incomplete, you may ask us to amend the information. You have the right to request an amendment during the time that the information is kept by or for the hospital.

To request an amendment, your request must be made in writing and must include a reason that supports your request. This request is submitted to the Director of the Health Information Management Department (Medical Records).

To help you with your request the Health Information Management Department has a form that you can complete. They will provide a copy of this form for you. You can also choose to write out your request and submit it to us.

We may deny your request for an amendment if it is not in writing and does not include a reason to support the request. We may also deny your request if you ask us to amend information that:

- Is accurate and complete.
- Is not part of the medical information kept by or for the hospital;
- Was not created by us, unless the person or organization that created the information is no longer available to make the amendment; or
- Is not part of the information you would be permitted to inspect and copy

YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION RIGHTS

An Accounting of Disclosures: You have the right to request a list of the disclosures we made of your medical information. To request this list or "accounting of disclosures," you must submit your request in writing to the Director of the Health Information Management Department (Medical Records). Your request must state a time period, which may not be longer than six years and may not include dates before April 14, 2003. Your request should indicate the form in which you want the list (for example, on paper, electronically). The first accounting provided in any 12-month period is free. For additional lists, we may charge you the costs of providing the list. We will notify you of the cost involved and you may choose to withdraw or modify your request at that time before any costs are incurred.

Request Restrictions: You have the right to request a restriction or limitation on the medical information we use or disclose about you for treatment, payment or health care operations. You also have the right to request a limit on the medical information we disclose about you to someone who is involved in your care or the payment for your care, like a family member or friend. For example, you could ask that we not use or disclose information about a surgery you had.

We are not required to agree to your request. If we do agree, we will comply with your request unless the information is needed to provide you emergency treatment.

YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION RIGHTS

To request restrictions, you must make your request in writing to the Director of the Health Information Management Department (Medical Records). Your request must include: (1) what information you want to limit; (2) whether you want to limit our use, disclosure, or both; and (3) what information is affected by the limits you select (for example, disclosures to your spouse).

Request Confidential Communications: You have the right to request that we communicate with you about medical matters in a certain way or at a certain location. We will agree to the request to the extent that it is reasonable for us to do so. For example, you can ask that we use an alternative address for billing purposes. To request an alternate address or phone number, simply ask the registration clerk. Any other requests should be sent in writing to the Privacy Officer at the address listed below.

Destruction of Your Medical Information

The Department of Public Health of Massachusetts requires hospitals and clinics to maintain your medical record information for a period of twenty years. During this time we may convert your medical record to another format such as a scanned image or a microfilm image. We are not required to keep the original paper copy and do not typically maintain paper copies for more than three years. We do comply with state law and maintain your record on microfilm or in an electronic format for the required twenty year period. Twenty years after your discharge or completion of care we are permitted to destroy your record. We will not notify you that we are going to destroy your record. In compliance with state law we are only required to notify the Department of Public Health thirty days in advance of any destruction.

YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION RIGHTS

A Paper Copy of This Notice: You have the right to a paper copy of this notice. You may ask us to give you a copy of this notice at any time. Even if you have agreed to receive this notice electronically, you are still entitled to a paper copy of this notice.

You may obtain a copy of this notice at our website at www.lowellgeneral.org.

Complaints

You may complain to Lowell General Hospital and to the Department of Health and Human Services if you believe your privacy rights have been violated. You will not be penalized for filing a complaint.

Changes to this Notice

We reserve the right to change this notice. The revised or changed notice will be effective for information we already have about you as well as any information we receive in the future. The current notice will be posted in the hospital and include the effective date. In addition, each time you register at/or are admitted to the hospital for treatment or health care services as an inpatient or outpatient, we will offer you a copy of the current notice in effect.

YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION RIGHTS

Other Uses of Medical Information

Other uses and disclosures of medical information not covered by this notice or the laws that apply to us will be made only with your written permission. If you provide us permission to use or disclose medical information about you, you may revoke that permission, in writing, at any time. If you revoke your permission, we will no longer use or disclose medical information about you for the reasons covered by your written authorization. You understand that we are unable to take back any disclosures we have already made with your permission, and that we are required to retain our records of the care that we provided to you.

Contact Information

If you have any questions or complaints, please contact:

Lowell General Hospital Privacy Officer
295 Varnum Avenue
Lowell MA 01854-2193
Phone: 978-937-6243

Patients First In Everything We Do!

Please ask a staff member for this information in Khmer or Portuguese or Spanish.

សូមសួរមន្ត្រីលិកយើងបើលោកអ្នកចង់បានព័ត៌មាននេះជាភាសាខ្មែរ។

Por favor fale com um dos funcionários para obter esta informação em português.

Por favor preguntele a algun miembro del personal por esta información en español.

295 Varnum Avenue
Lowell, MA 01854-2193

Phone: 978-937-6000

1 Hospital Drive
Lowell, MA 01852

Phone: 978-458-1411